Chicago Title Insurance Company Canada Together with Do Process Software Ltd. Now Provides a Streamlined Approach to Ordering Title Insurance

Mississauga, ON – (April 2006) – Chicago Title Insurance Company (CTIC) Canada, a leader in the title insurance industry, today announced a collaboration between Do Process' The Conveyancer[®] and CTIC online title insurance ordering system. This cooperative effort will enable lawyers to obtain residential title insurance policies from CTIC with convenience and ease. This innovative method of title insuring is fully integrated with The Conveyancer[®] and will enable transactions to be underwritten electronically in just seconds for most transactions. In the past, lawyers using The Conveyancer[®], were required to complete and submit Chicago Title orders through non-integrated methods. With the integration of CTIC's title insurance ordering system and The Conveyancer[®], lawyers will now receive final policies directly from CTIC in a completely seamless and automated manner.

"This cooperative effort with Do Process is part of our continued commitment to offer simplicity and automation to real estate law firms that are seeking solutions to increase efficiency and fully automate all facets of their practices," says Gary P. Mooney, Chief Agent of Chicago Title Insurance Company Canada. "The combined benefits offered by this leading real estate software and the protection afforded by a Chicago Title policy are key to real estate law firms maximizing their time while providing their clients with a high level of service and protection."

"Over 2,000 law firms use The Conveyancer[®] to generate documents and manage their real estate practices", says Mitchell Brown, President of Do Process Software Ltd. "We are committed to providing members of the legal community with technology and services which will not only improve efficiency, but also enhance their practices. Connectivity with business partners such as CTIC, who add value to the conveyancing process, is a key element of this mission."
