Do Process LP and FCT Extend Partnership

TORONTO, ONTARIO, November 25, 2014 – Do Process LP Canada’s #1 provider of practice specific software for legal professionals and FCT, Canada’s leading provider of title insurance are pleased to announce that they have extended their strategic partnership for five more years. Effective January 1, 2015, this renewed agreement extends the strategic partnership between two industry leaders that began in 2001.

“FCT is a valued partner and together we will strive to meet the changing needs of the legal community. Our new agreement will ultimately result in increased efficiencies and benefits for Law Firms and Notary Offices across Canada. Customers ordering FCT title insurance through The Conveyancer® application will continue to enjoy the benefits of this streamlined workflow.” John Robinson, Executive Director, Do Process LP.

“FCT is delighted to continue our investment in the legal community by extending our strategic partnership with Do Process. We value the expertise that Do Process brings to FCT and our customers and feel our two companies are aligned in our focus in adding value to lawyers across Canada,” said Michael LeBlanc, CEO, FCT. “Through this partnership FCT will be able to deliver continued benefits for our clients in the legal community – focusing on streamlined processes, value-added products and services alongside FCT’s signature customer service excellence that leads the industry.”
